

SUPREME COURT OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
COURT OF APPEAL

16 April 2018

Court of Appeal Seminars

The Court of Appeal will be hosting a civil practice seminar for the profession on Thursday, 17 May 2018 and a criminal practice seminar on Tuesday, 22 May 2018.

The seminars will be conducted from 4.30pm to 5.30pm in Court 1 at Stirling Gardens.

The civil practice seminar will include presentations by judges and registrars on matters of particular concern in the management of civil appeals, the recent changes to the Court of Appeal Rules, preparation of the appellant's case and respondent's answer and the substantive hearings of appeals, as well as interlocutory issues and hearings.

The criminal practice seminar will similarly include presentations by judges and registrars on matters of particular concern in the management of criminal appeals, the recent changes to the Court of Appeal Rules, the preparation of the appellant's case and respondent's answer and the substantive hearings of appeals, as well as interlocutory issues and hearings.

There will be an opportunity for questions at the conclusion of the presentations.

Given the content of the seminars, CPD points will be allocated.

To register for the seminars, please email the Associate to Registrar Gilich – associate.registrar.gilich@justice.wa.gov.au with your full name and contact details by no later than 10 May 2018.
