Hearing Rooms Available for Hire at WA Supreme Court

Supreme Court of Western Australia hearing rooms in the David Malcolm Justice Centre are now available for hire when not required by the Courts.

The hearing rooms may be hired on a user-pays basis for use in private arbitration, adjudication, mediation and conciliation matters, and by courts, boards, commissions and tribunals.

Three types of hearing rooms are available: trial courts, multi-purpose hearing rooms and mediation rooms.

The cost to hire a trial court per day is $1210, plus a $350 administration fee, with multi-purpose hearing rooms and mediation rooms costing $825 a day (plus a $250 fee). Rooms may be hired for half a day at a reduced amount.

The David Malcolm Justice Centre is located in central Perth at 28 Barrack Street, near the corner of Hay Street.

Full details about how to hire the hearing rooms are available on the Court's website at www.supremecourt.wa.gov.au. The link is located on the left column on Court's home page, under the 'Hearing Room Hire' heading.
