Media Statement – Kalgoorlie Court House

Attention news editors/chiefs of staff

Following a disturbance outside the Kalgoorlie Court House in Hannan Street this morning, measures have been put in place to ensure that all staff and court users in the building at the time of the incident are safe and secure.

There has been some disruption to court proceedings.

The Magistrate's Court hopes to resume its caseload as soon as possible today.

The District Court trial in the building has been postponed until tomorrow.

A full inquiry will be held into the circumstances of this morning's disturbance.
