

Law Week

14 to 18 September 2009

Celebrating law and justice in Western Australia

Law Week is an annual program of events held each year by the Law Society of Western Australia to promote law and justice in our community.

This year's Law Week will feature a variety of law-related activities, seminars and events for members of the public and the legal profession across the state.

Highlights for the Public

Some of this year's events include:

-  Free legal advice and displays in Fremantle, East Victoria Park, Mirrabooka and over the phone
-  Tours of the Supreme Court, District Court and regional courts
-  Free seminars on wills, enduring power of attorney, migration, intellectual property and many others
-  More events at www.lawsocietywa.asn.au

For the full calendar of events, details of court tours and the latest additions to the Law Week 2009 program, visit www.lawsocietywa.asn.au
