Appointment of Auxiliary Judge to the Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Western Australia welcomes the appointment of the Hon Justice Jennifer Smith as an auxiliary judge of the Court, upon her Honour's retirement as a judge of the Court on 5 June 2024.

Justice Smith presently sits in the general division of the Court and is the manager of the Court's Commercial and Managed Cases List. As an auxiliary judge, her Honour will continue to sit in the general division and as an acting judge of appeal, where required.

Chief Justice Peter Quinlan, on behalf of the Court, welcomed and thanked Justice Smith for her continued service to the administration of justice in Western Australia.

'The Court warmly welcomes the appointment of Justice Smith as an auxiliary judge, following her Honour's distinguished service as a judge of the Court for many years. The Court acknowledges and thanks the Executive government for recognising the need for additional judicial resources in the Court, including in the Court of Appeal.'
