New Appointments at the Supreme Court of Western Australia

Two new appointments have been announced at the Supreme Court of Western Australia following the recent appointment of the Hon Justice Janine Pritchard as President of the State Administrative Tribunal.

Ms Jenni Hill has been appointed as a judge of the General Division of the Court, commencing on 4 June 2019. Justice Hill will be designated a Commercial and Managed Cases List Judge, including in relation to matters in the Corporations List.

The Hon Justice John Vaughan has been appointed as a Judge of Appeal effective from 4 June 2019. Justice Vaughan was appointed to the Court in April 2018 and has been the Corporations List Judge managing the Corporations List since its creation.

Chief Justice Peter Quinlan said that Justice Vaughan would continue as the Corporations List Judge, in addition to sitting in the Court of Appeal.

"The Corporations List has significantly contributed to the effective and efficient disposition of this important part of the Court's jurisdiction," Chief Justice Quinlan said.

"Justice Vaughan's continued management of the List, together with the appointment of Justice Hill to the CMC List, will continue that success."

A special sitting of the Full Bench of the Court to welcome Justice Hill will be announced soon.
