New Supreme Court Principal Registrar

The new Supreme Court of Western Australia Principal Registrar, Ms Larissa Strk, will commence in that role on 1 August 2016.

The Chief Justice of Western Australia, the Hon Wayne Martin AC, said Ms Strk, who is the first woman to be appointed as the Court's Principal Registrar, would bring to the Court a wealth of experience in the area of civil litigation.

"I'm delighted that Larissa has agreed to take on this vital role within our Court," he said.

Ms Strk is currently a partner in the Perth dispute resolution group of King & Wood Mallesons. She has represented clients in a broad range of commercial and corporate disputes in both the Supreme and Federal Courts.

She completed her Bachelor of Laws (Hons) at the University of Western Australia in 1997 and was admitted to practice in Western Australia in 1998.

Ms Strk takes over as Principal Registrar from Mr Michael Gething, who was appointed as a judge of the District Court of Western Australia.
