MEDIA STATEMENT

28 May 2020

State of Western Australia v Edwards – Information for the Public

The Supreme Court trial of Bradley Robert Edwards will resume on Monday, 8 June 2020 for closing submissions.

The trial is heard in Court 7.2 at the District Court building at 500 Hay Street, Perth.

Seating in the public gallery is limited. In response to the impact of COVID-19, the availability of seating will be reduced to allow more space between individuals.

The trial will also be streamed to an overflow public gallery at the Supreme Court in Stirling Gardens.

An edited audio recording of the proceedings will be uploaded to the Supreme Court website as soon as practical. This recording must not be downloaded, copied, sampled, recorded, disseminated or broadcast in any way.

Please note there is no onsite parking at the District or Supreme Courts. You will also need to go through airport-style security screening on arrival.

The trial will generally commence at 10.00 am each day. Members of the public are to be seated by 9.40 am (doors to the court room will be opened early to facilitate this).

Recording, sketching and note taking is not permitted (other than by permission of the trial judge, which is generally limited to the media).
